

Vocabulary	Meaning
behaviour	the way in which one acts or conducts oneself, especially toward others
laws	a rule, usually made by a government, that is used to order the way in which a society behaves leader	a person in control of a group, country, or situation
obey	to act according to what you have been asked or ordered to do by someone in authority parliament	the group of (usually) elected politicians or other people who make the laws for their country responsibility	something that it is your job or duty to deal with rules	an instruction that states the way things are or should be done, and tells you what you are allowed or are not allowed to do values	the principles that help you to decide what is right and wrong, and how to act in various situations

Assessment focus – Evaluate Begin to discern the value of the concept in the lives of those living in the tradition studied, as well as beginning to recognise some of the issues this might raise

Do you think the two Great Commandments are still important today?

Key knowledge – The Greatest Commandments

Matthew 22:34-40
 Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: “Love your neighbour as yourself.” All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.

Key knowledge – British Values

The values of Democracy, Rule of Law, Respect and Tolerance and Individual Liberty are fundamental British Values that underpin what it is to be a citizen in a modern and diverse Great Britain valuing our community and celebrating diversity of the UK.

