

Vocabulary	Meaning
Computer	A technological device for working with information
Online	While connected to the internet
Safe	Free from harm or danger
Button	A small part of a machine that makes the machine do something when pushed
Input	The act of putting in information
Clear	To remove something
Locate	To find the position of
Undo	To reverse an action
Direction	The path along which something moves
Input	The act of putting in something
Drag	To move something slowly
Coding	Take instructions and translate in to a language the computer understands
Movement	Directions to move an object
Sequence	To put things in the right order
Program	A series of coded instructions to control the object
Create	To make something new
Test	To see if something works how you need it to
Improvements	To make something better

Key knowledge – Internet

A network that connects millions of computers worldwide

Key knowledge – Instructions

Instructions – a specific set of rules to show how something is done. How to input to control an online character

