

Vocabulary	Meaning
Opinion	What you think about something
Adjust	Alter or move (something) slightly in order to achieve the desired fit
Spreadsheet	An electronic document in which data is arranged
Questionnaire	A list of questions that several people are asked
Brand	A type of product made by a company
Format	A way of arranging things
Market research	The action or activity of gathering information about consumers' needs and preferences
Subject	The thing that is being discussed
Field	A box into which text is typed
Username	The name someone uses to sign-in to a device (often their email address)
Interpret	To work out what something means
Results	Information gathered
Analyse	To examine our findings or results
Conclusion	A final summing up of your thoughts
Insert	Add something to your page (e.g.an image)
Distribute	Create a space between things
Design	A decorative pattern
Dimensions	One length, width or depth

Key knowledge – Appropriate question formats

 Are questions that people can choose how they want to answer: eg. How old are you?	 Are questions that people need to choose how they want to respond: eg. What is your favourite chocolate bar? Mars, Twix, Bounty, etc	 Are questions where people are asked to rate a question eg. One a scale of 1 to 5 rate the following chocolate flavours (1 being the favourite and 5 being the least)
--	---	---

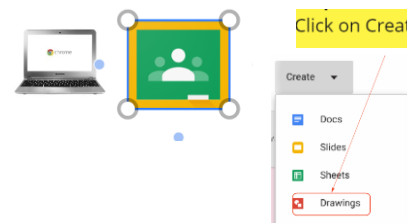

Key knowledge – Align things

Aligning things: line things up

Key knowledge – What is Google Drawings

Log into Google Classroom. Look for today's assignment.

Click on Create and find Google Drawings.

Select Drawings when it opens to begin your assignment.

