

Vocabulary	Meaning
interpretation	the action of explaining the meaning of something source	a person, place or thing from which something can be gathered investigate	to look closely at something plot	to plan something in secret which is illegal or harmful oath	a promise to behave in a certain way commemorate	to do something in order to remember an important event treason	the crime of betraying the monarch or country extravagant	to be over the top and expensive taxes	an amount of money paid to the government to help run the country extract	to take a part of something luxurious	something extremely comfortable or rich loan	to borrow something debt	an amount of money that is owed communion	a Christian service where bread and wine are shared altar	a table in a Christian church where bread and wine are blessed Bishops	Christian worship leaders who are often in charge of worship in an area preacher	a person who gives speeches, usually about religion vexed	to be annoyed. Frustrated or worried riot	a violent disturbance created by a crowd

Key knowledge – Gunpowder plot

During his reign James I believed that people should follow the Protestant religion. A small group of Catholic men gathered and decided to blow up James I while he was sitting in Parliament. Guy Fawkes was arrested on the 4th November 1604 with 36 barrels of gunpowder.

Key knowledge – Divine Right of Kings

The Magna Carta existed to limit the power of the king. After it was created (1215) Kings could no longer do what they wanted! The King, just like everyone else, is subject to the rule of the law.

James I and his son Charles I, both believed in the Divine Rights of Kings and that they could do whatever they wanted.

History Timeline

The Stuarts
1603-1702

James I

Charles I

