

Vocabulary	Meaning
aboriginal	people who originally lived in Australia symbol	something that stands for something else overlapping	putting things on top of each other to cover part of the picture repeating	do or use something again or more than once line	a stroke made with a pen, pencil or other tool ochre	an earthy pigment sketch	a rough or unfinished drawing or painting outline	a line or set of lines showing the shape of an object texture	how something looks and feels pattern	a repeated decorative design technique	a way of carrying out a particular task dotting	mark with a small spot or spots familiar	something that is well known X-ray	a photo of the inside of a body/something cross hatching	shading with parallel lines shading	a darker area of an art work tone	how light or dark something is Key knowledge – Repeated pattern

Artists use repeating patterns in art by using the same lines, shapes, symbols and colours more than once.

Key knowledge – line types / cross hatching

Lines can be used to show pattern and texture, there are lots of different types of lines you can use

Cross hatching is a shading technique using parallel lines.

Key knowledge – Aboriginal art

Aboriginal art are paintings created by aboriginal people. They often used Australian animals in their art. They used ochre mixed with water to create one of the world's first paints.

